Louis Napoleon took his seat in the National Assembly and made a speech, giving in his adhesion to the Republic. Raspail has also been admitted to his seat.

Eight socialists were arrested on the 27th, charged with a conspiracy against the life of Gen: Cavnignac.

The excitement in Paris in consequence of the elections, was cooling down, but the utmost precautions were still being taken by

Posts were every where doubled, and large parties of troops were in garrison and continually kept in barracks ready for service. It Is supposed, however, that tranquility will continue until the question of the election for President comes before the Assembly. A crisis will then ensue. The present intention of the government is to propose that the first office. President of the Republic shall be elected by the Assembly.
INSURRECTION IN BADEN

The Republicans, under Struve, have made a successful outbreak in Baden, and have proclaimed a German Republic. According to the Gazette Nationale Suisse, Struve had returned to the Grand Duchy to attend his trial for certain articles which he had published in his paper, the Specsateur Allemand. He was teceived by the people with enthusiasm, who accompanied him to Lorrach and conducted him to the Hotel de Ville.

There he harranged the people, who arfested the magistrates and the other employes of the Government, and imprisoned them. The tocsin sounded; the whole of the neighboring communes rose; the refugees returned to their homes; the landstrum was called out; the Republic proclaimed; and the Republican army, divided into three columns, was marching upon Carlsruhe, having previously broken up the railway to prevent the advance of the troops. When the last accounts left the Republicans were completely masters of Lorrach

CORRECTION. - The majority for Longstreth, in footing up our returns last week, was erroneously set down at 598 instead of 578. J. P. Pursel's vote in Sunbury is 90 instead of 70:

The Whigs will have a majority of 9 on joint-ballot in our next legislature. The House stands Whigs 50; Democrats 50. The Senate, Whigs 21; Democrats 12.

GOVERNOR'S ELECTION.-According to the last returns, we make Johnston's majority 25. The Ledger makes it 206; the Harrisburg Union 7. Painter's majority is about 2,000. Longstreth's loss in his own county defeats him.

Hon James Coopen, at present the Attorney General of Penna. will, in all probability be elected as the next U. S. Senator, to succeed Gen. Cameron, whose term expires on the 4th of March next; Mr. Cooper is a man of fine abilities, and withal a perfect gentleman. CINCINNATI, Oct. 18, The Legislature is doubtful. A Whig is lected from Clinton county; but it is disputed on the ground that he held the office

Pennsylvania for the next three years.

I be under the rule of a whig administion. Whether for good or for evil, time the determine. This is the first time the phies have elected a Governor in this state. for the last thirty years, if we except the interregnum under the administration of Rit- A uer, who was elected by a division in the democrafic party. Governor Johnston is, however, very different from Gov. Ritner. He is a man of superior abilities, and will, no doubt, be the Governor himself. He is personally very popular, and deservedly so, Bu amongst all who knew him. It is but fair Bla to give him a trial before we condemn. Co Having long been a democrat, he may still Cra be swayed by the principles he professed in Ch his earlier years. Among these, we are Co glad to find in him, an able advocate for the protection of America industry.

THE NEW COUNTERPEIT.-We stated last week, that an judividual was arrested at Northumberland, for passing counterfeit Five dollar notes on the Bank of Penn Township. It appears that they are affoat in other places. Bicknell's Reporter describes them thus :-

"New counterfeit 5s on the Bank of Penr Township have made their appearance in this and other cities. They are so well executed that brokers and banks have received them E. Y. The St. Albans Messenger gives the followaccout of a mail robbery between that 21st lown and Troy, New York.

Hol- 23d brook, Esq., reputed to be a man of rare tact 28th and shrewdness in affairs of the kind, and one who had more than a dozen years of experience besides, had been actively engaged for several weeks past probing this mysterious affair to the bottom. Every Postmaster between St. Albans and Troy had been examined, and without any prospect of finding the missing money

But strange to say, Monday's mail brought a package directed "St, Albans" on the wrapper, and within the envelope "M. Darrow, Merchant, St. Albans, Vt." The address Beaver, was printed with a pen, in a very odd, but Bucks, legible style; but there was no post mark to Bedford identify the post-office from which it was Blair, sent.
